There's a fundraiser for Japan at La Petite Mort Gallery in the Byward Market tonight, with dozens of pieces of original art available from artists around the world.

"More than 50 artists have donated work that is affordably priced and will be sold with 100 per cent of sales going to help the tragic situation in Japan," says gallery owner Guy Bérubé.

Three of the pieces available at the sale are posted above and below. The sale is 6:30 to 10:00 p.m. tonight, Saturday, March 19. La Petite Mort is at 306 Cumberland St. All proceeds go to World Vision to help with
